Mogridge Out For a Month; Ruth in Shape

Southpaw's Aukle Is Badly Sprained; Yankees Shatter Attendance Record

By W. O. McGeehan

ST. LOUIS, June 21. — A thunder shower spilled most of the Upper Mississippi into Sportsman's Park to-day just before game time and washed out about 12,000 customers. Consequently the game was postponed.

The sound of the hail pattering on the head of Ping Bodie, the Wonderful Wop, made a hollow sound in competition with the thunder, that frightened the children. There remain two days of baseball before the Yanks head back to the Polish Grounds, after a trip that has been fairly successful from a financial point of view and not so bad from a baseball point of view.

George Mogridge, who sprained his ankle in Chicago, reported to-day, but was shipped back to New York. It probably will be a month before he will be able to play again. The "shanty" over the eye of Babe Ruth has been reduced and the Infant is in playing condition once more.

Break Attendance Record

If to-day's game had been played the attendance would have brought the total of the trip to the 200,000 mark, which is pretty close to a record for a Western trip for any club in any league. Attendance records for single games were broken here and at Cleveland.

games were broken here and at Cleveland.

Carl Mays was to have pitched against Allan Sothoron. They probably will meet to-morrow, wind and weather permitting. Mays has just returned from a short visit to his home in this state. The Yanks are confident that they have stopped the rambunctious Browns for the rest of the scries.

The entire Western circuit seems to be baseball crazy and a lot of this mania is due to Babe Ruth. The Infant heads a procession whenever he walks abroad. They bring their babies to the park to point him out and the hand that shook the hand of Babe Ruth is looked upon with quite as much awe as the hand that shook the hand John L. Sullivan used to be.

Wait on Weather Man.

Wait on Weather Man.
Rain prevented the Giants and the Cubs from playing their opening game of the series at the Polo Grounds yesterday, but the two clubs will get under way this afternoon, weather permitting. The postponed contest will be played early in August, when the Windy City aggregation makes its next Eastern trip. Rube Benton and Lefty Tyler will probably oppose each other on the mound to-day.

The extra day est should prove a great benefit to the Giants, as it will probably enable Frank Frisch to play his first full game since his opration for appndights lat in April. The Polo Grounders are now marking time until the sensational youngster reaches his top form, and then they hope to launch a drive which should carry them into the first division. The Fordman Flash is fast rounding into shape and already is beginning to show some of his former brillianey.

McGraw intends to retain his new batting order for the time being at least. The shift in the line-up worked very well on Sunday, when the Giants swamped the Pirates. Long George Kelly has apparently hit his batting stride and is meeting the bell hard and often. The New York pitchers also are fast reaching their best form.

The Dodgers were also forced to call off their game with the Pirates at Ebbets Field. As Thursday is an open date for both teams, the contest has been scheduled for that day. Wilbur Cooper, Gibson's star southpaw, and Leon Cadore will probably be the pitching nominees to-day.

Pre dictions that a crowd of 12,000 people, the largest that ever witnessed the opening game between Yale and Harvard, would see the Alumi Day meeting here to-morrow of the Bulldog and the Crimson, were made to-night by the Yale management. The only doubt was over the weather. Rain fell all day, preventing the final practice of the teams.

Considerable Race

A partial loss of 1919 efficiency on the part of the Red pitching staff

The Reds, with the pitching they drew last year, would again have been the class of the league. But fine pitching was a vital factor in their success, and this season they are drawing far rougher competition from a far greater number of clubs.

The Giants have looked weaker than the class of the Red pitching staff to anybody's race.
